

BOARD MEMBER BIO

Heather Chapple

Heather supports the Civic Innovation Program at the City of Calgary and holds a M.Sc. in Social Policy and Development from the London School of Economics. She has a proven track record of working in community development in Canada and abroad for both governmental and non-governmental organizations. Heather believes gender equality is fundamental for achieving progress and growth in any society and that we all have a role to play in the realization of that equality.