

BOARD MEMBER BIO

Sarah Black

Sarah Black is Legal Counsel to LNG Canada Development Inc., as a secondee from Shell Canada Energy where she began working in 2012 after practicing law at a national firm and clerking for the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench. Sarah began her career in investment banking in Toronto and is licensed to practice law in Alberta and the State of New York. Sarah holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Hons.) First Class from Queen's University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Calgary. Sarah has been an active volunteering in the arts and is Chair of the Canadian Corporate Counsel Association ("CCCA") for Southern Alberta and a member of the national CCCA Executive Committee.